Lincoln Land Charity Championship Tickets on Sale
Volunteer Registration Now Open

Springfield, IL. (Feb. 16) – The Lincoln Land Charity Championship announced today that tickets are now on sale for the inaugural Web.com Tour event, to be held at Panther Creek Country Club the week of July 11-17, 2016. Volunteer registration is also open and additional tournament information can be found at www.lincolnlandcharitychampionship.com.

"Panther Creek is the only Hale Irwin Signature Championship Golf Course in the state of Illinois and the opportunity to represent our "Capital City" and the "Land of Lincoln" to hundreds of volunteers and thousands of spectators representing Springfield is an honor," stated Jimm Moody, General Manager of Panther Creek Country Club. "It's not every day that the center of activities for Central Illinois is located in southwest Springfield, which will give the opportunity for everyone to see what beautiful homes, communities and recreational opportunities are available in Springfield and Chatham."

Tickets to the championship are available Wednesday through Sunday during tournament week and start at only $10. Additionally, juniors 16 and under are admitted free with a ticketed adult. Tickets can be purchased online by visiting www.lincolnlandcharitychampionship.com.

“We are thrilled to announce the kick off of ticket sales and volunteer opportunities for the Lincoln Land Charity Championship,” stated tournament director Alex McCarty. “We are excited for the community and for the fan-base to have the opportunity to see the future stars of the PGA TOUR right here in their own backyard.”

Over 400 volunteers are needed to fill over 20 committees, allotted on a first come, first served basis. Volunteering allows fans to get inside the ropes and behind the scenes with leading Web.com Tour players. The official volunteer package is only $50 and includes:

- Tournament Polo
- Ball Cap
- Water Bottle
- Volunteer Credential, valid for tournament entry the entire week
- Lanyard
- (4) Good-Any-One-Day Grounds Tickets
